Ladies invited to go under the bonnet

LADIES living on the Isle of Wight are next month (August, 2010) being invited to spend some time under the bonnet to learn about car maintenance.

Isle of Wight – Island Tyres is hosting a fun and informative free ladies' night at its retail unit on Newport Road in Lake on Wednesday, August 11.

Paul Noel, Manager of Isle of Wight – Island Tyres, explained: "This is a unique chance for ladies to find out all about general car care and maintenance and we promise it won't be boring.

"Our motto is: 'be safe, be legal' and we are keen to pass on our knowledge about keeping your vehicle well maintained and in a safe, roadworthy condition.

"During the evening we will have hands-on demonstrations on checking tyre pressure, tread and fluid levels, including oil and water, and changing a tyre."

There are limited places available to women wishing to attend the ladies' night, which is free and runs from 6pm until 8pm on Wednesday, August 11.

Isle of Wight – Island Tyres specialises in providing tyres for cars, vans, 4x4s and motorbikes. It also offers a mobile tyre fitting service, nitrogen tyre filling, MOTs, servicing, exhausts, brakes, batteries and wheel alignment.
